James R. Clark
FSA, MAAA, EA
Consulting Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Jim Clark is a consulting actuary in Milliman's New York employee benefits practice. He works closely with law firms and other partnerships.

EXPERIENCE

Jim has 25 years of experience providing technical client service across a broad spectrum of buyers. Throughout his career, he has been recognized by his clients as an actuary with an exceptional ability to help them understand the numbers.

Jim has provided actuarial consulting services to employers in the automobile, manufacturing, medical, and non-profit sectors. In recent years his focus has been primarily on professional service firms and privately-owned companies.

He has extensive experience in the areas of nondiscrimination testing, plan design, plan termination, valuation and funding, ERISA compliance, forecasting and financial accounting. Notably, Jim has successfully designed and implemented market rate cash balance plans and other types of variable benefit retirement plans.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Jim currently serves as a member of the Society of Actuaries' (SOA) Advisory Group to the Retirement Plans Experience Committee (RPEC). RPEC publishes mortality tables and mortality improvement scales for use with group retirement plans in the U.S. He has also served on the Academy of Actuaries' Pension Accounting Committee.
