

Eoin Ó Baoighill

FSAI
Consulting Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Eoin Ó Baoighill is a senior consulting actuary in Milliman's Dublin office. He joined the firm in March 2014.

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

Eoin is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries in Ireland.

EXPERIENCE

Eoin has 20 years of experience, much of which has been spent in pricing for both personal and commercial lines in the Irish market. From 2012 to 2014, he was the head of pricing for Liberty Insurance Ireland. Eoin also served as the chief pricing actuary in RSA Ireland and Zurich Insurance Ireland. Prior to that, he worked in reserving and pricing roles in AXA Insurance Ireland.

His expertise includes a wide range of actuarial work such as:

- General Insurance Reserve Reviews
- Product development across a wide range of personal and commercial general insurance classes
- Financial and regulatory training (in particular Pillar I and Pillar III, from introductory to board and senior management levels)
- Solvency II consulting across all three pillars, including preparing gap analyses, preparing Pillar 1 figures and assisting clients in understanding Pillar 3 reporting requirements
- Pricing reviews for general insurance companies across all lines of business involving technical price analysis and optimisation techniques to deliver street prices
