

Nicholas J. Johnson

FSA, MAAA
Principal, Consulting Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Nick Johnson is a consulting actuary specializing in healthcare in Milliman's Seattle office. He joined the firm in 2009.

EXPERIENCE

Nick's primary expertise is in helping clients understand the financial implications of trends and changes in the healthcare delivery system, particularly in Medicare and dual-eligible populations.

He has worked with a broad range of clients, including health plans, integrated delivery systems, provider groups, reinsurers, and the Veterans Health Administration. He has significant experience in Medicare Advantage, Medicare Part D, Medicaid, commercial, and ACA markets.

Nick's primary focus areas, including examples of recent analyses include:

Medicare Advantage

- Bid development and certification
- HCC risk score monitoring and forecasting
- Capitation and risk-sharing contract support for health plans and providers

Medicare Part D

- Bid development and certification
- Formulary impact analysis\research and tool development
- Research and tool development

Managed long-term services and supports (MLTSS)

- Medicaid MLTSS RFP review and response support
- Monitoring nursing home to HCBS transition rates
- LTSS forecasting and analysis of programmatic changes for Veterans Health Administration
- PACE capitation rate setting

Reinsurance and stop loss

- Review of quota share opportunities
- Stop loss reserve estimation
- Milliman Excess Product Suite tool development

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

- Fellow, Society of Actuaries
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

EDUCATION

- BA, Mathematics – Augustana College (IL)
- MS, Applied Statistics – Portland State University (OR)

