

Andrew P. Johnson

FCAS, MAAA
Consulting Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Andy is a principal with the Boston office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 1993.

EXPERIENCE

Andy's work on property and casualty consulting assignments includes such areas as pricing, loss and premium reserving, funding studies for risk retention groups and self-insureds, pro forma financial projections, business plan development, and product strategy. Clients include insurers, reinsurers, regulators, brokers, self-insurers, and second injury funds.

Andy's casualty actuarial career began in 1978. Prior to joining Milliman, he held senior management positions in two Massachusetts domiciled property and casualty insurers, where his responsibilities included all actuarial functions as well as such areas as planning, market research, alternative distribution, and statistical reporting.

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

- Fellow, Casualty Actuarial Society
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

EDUCATION

- BS, Mathematics and Economics, University of New Hampshire

