

Kevin Manning

FSAI
Principal, Consulting Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Kevin is a principal in Milliman's Dublin office, and joined the company in 2007. He has more than 20 years experience in the insurance industry.

EXPERIENCE

Kevin has extensive experience in a wide variety of insurance functions, including capital management, product development, financial reporting, risk management, marketing and new life company authorisations. He combines strong technical actuarial skills with strategic general management experience.

Kevin is a member of the PRSA Committee and the Member Engagement Committee of the Society of Actuaries in Ireland and was for many years a member of the Society's Healthcare Committee. He was a member of the Society's Unit-Pricing Working Party (2009) and was a member of the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries working party on linked matching considerations under Solvency II. He also discharges the statutory roles of head of actuarial function and PRSA actuary, and discharged the statutory role of appointed actuary for a number of companies under the Solvency I regime.

Kevin's consulting experience includes a variety of projects covering both life insurance and health insurance.

Prior to joining Milliman, Kevin held a range of roles with New Ireland/Bank of Ireland Life.
